

Proposal for revision of Scand-LAS Bylaws to the AGM 28th of May 2026

Background

The board would like to admit the chair of the Education and Training Committee as an ad hoc member of the board, in addition to the editor in-chief of the journal. This reflects the increased and increasing importance of this committee and its role in the society.

Proposal for ad hoc member in the bylaws

In order to make this change possible, the bylaws has to be revised as described below.

Present reading

§17 The Board

(...)The Editor-in-Chief of the journal is an ad hoc member of the board, but without voting rights

Proposed new reading

§17 The Board

(...)The Editor-in-Chief of the journal and the Chair of the Education and Training Committee are ad hoc members of the board, but without voting rights.

On behalf of the Scand-LAS board

David Arney
President
